EASTSIDE JEWISH COMMUNITY OF PORTLAND ADOPTS HEBREW NAME - "EASTSIDE KEHILA"

Eastside Jewish Community of Portland – whose mission, since its founding in 1992, is to “further the spiritual, educational and cultural experience of our Jewish community” – has recently adopted a Hebrew name - “Eastside Kehila.”.

The primary reason this change was proposed is that we were seeking a greater connection with Judaism by incorporating Hebrew into our name. The word, ‘Kehila,’ means ‘community,’ so the original name -in a sense - is preserved, only it is now stated in Hebrew.

Another factor influencing the Board of Directors to approve the name adoption was that “ Eastside Jewish Community of Portland”, as a name, was too long and as most people simply abbreviated it to EJCoP, it did not convey our deep roots in the traditions and teachings that originate in the Hebrew language.

The adoption of a Hebrew name was raised as an agenda item at our 2008 Annual Meeting, and was voted on by all attendees. The name has been registered with the State of Oregon.

Remember ! There is no August
Shabbat.... We are having the picnic at Creston Park instead !
